

Fee Schedule Nibor information

Valid as of 1st January 2019

Nibor information includes Nibor fixing values and their underlying indicative deposit rates provided by the Nibor panel banks. Nibor information is available for the following durations: 1 week, 1 month, 2 months, 3 months and 6 months.

Definitions

Real Time Information: Information that has been delayed by less than 5 hours from the time the information was first transmitted to the market. Real Time Information is subject to end-user fees and can only be distributed in closed and controlled user environments.

Delayed Information: Information that has been delayed by more than 5 hours and less than 24 hours from the time the information was first transmitted to the market.

Distributor: An entity holding a license for external or internal distribution of Nibor information.

Fees

All fees exclude Value Added Tax.

Distribution License Fees
		Real time	Delayed
External distribution ¹⁾	Right to external distribution of Real Time Information and Delayed Information.	NOK 52,000	NOK 42,000
Internal distribution	Right to internal distribution and use of Real Time Information and Delayed Information	NOK 38,000	NOK 28,000
Display Data Fees
End-user fee	Fee applies per end-user with access to Real Time Information in a display terminal. The Distributor is required to report the number of users on a monthly basis.	NOK 78	not relevant

1) The license for External distribution includes the license for Internal distribution

The Norwegian Interbank Offered Rate (Nibor) is owned and administered by Norske Finansielle Referanser AS (NoRe) and calculated and distributed by Oslo Børs. For distribution and/or use of Nibor information, please contact: sales@oslobors.no